

Third Church: A Hard Building To Love

Saturday, June 20th

10:00am - 12:30pm

The American Institute of Architects

1735 New York Avenue, NW

Metro Station: Farragut North, Farragut West

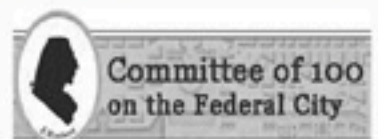

Join nationally-known architects Hugh Newell Jacobsen and Arthur Cotton Moore, Boston landscape architect Carol Johnson and Boston preservation architect David Fixler, former DC Historic Preservation Review Board member Denise Johnson, Washington landscape architect and planner Charles Trace and preservation consultant Sally Berk as they discuss key strategies for renovation and adaptive use of this controversial mid-century modernist landmark and how these strategies can serve as a prototype for similar buildings.

The symposium is free to the public.

Limited space is available.

Registration is required.

To register or for more information contact DCPL at 202.783.5144 or email rsvp@dcpreservation.org.

This project has been funded in part by a grant from the National Trust for Historic Preservation through the Dorothea de Schweinitz Preservation Fund for Washington, DC.
